Responsibility	Director, Student Experience	Cross-Reference	1. Copyright Act, Distance Education Policy
Approver	Academic Council	Appendices	Appendix 1: Assignment of Copyright and Waiver of Moral Rights
Review Schedule	Five years

1. Policy Statement

- 1.1. Grande Prairie Regional College will facilitate legitimate academic use of copyright materials and will regularly inform faculty, staff, and students of copyright law and policy. Whenever it is reasonable to do so, the College will ensure that those using materials for which the College is the copyright holder are notified of the protected status of such materials.

2. Background

- 2.1. Grande Prairie Regional College respects Canadian and International laws and agreements with respect to the use of copyright materials. The College acknowledges that copyright exists upon the creation, in durable form, of any original expression of ideas, regardless of format – print, digital, graphical, audio or video – in which such expression occurs.

3. Policy Objective

- 3.1. All material used at Grande Prairie Regional College will be copyright compliant.

4. Scope

- 4.1. This policy concerns all Grande Prairie Regional College staff.

5. Definitions

- 5.1. In the context of this policy the following definitions are used:
 - 5.1.1. “Copyrighted materials” are any publication, document, literary work, artistic work, program, recording, media file, webpage, etc., which is protected under copyright law.
 - 5.1.2. “Fair Dealing” is a users' right defined in s.29, s29.1 and s29.2 of the Copyright Act of Canada which permits individuals or institutions to use (or "deal" with) copyrighted materials without the consent of those materials' owner(s) where such use or dealing is fair. The "fairness" of a particular dealing is to be evaluated by the party making use of the work in accordance with the Six-Factor Test of Fair Dealing established by the Supreme Court of Canada (2004 SCC 13).

USE OF COPYRIGHT MATERIALS POLICY

6. Guiding Principles

- 6.1. It is the responsibility of the individual using copyrighted materials to ensure said use is compliant with Canadian law, the Use of Copyright Materials Policy, and the Copyright Practices Guide for GPRC instructors and Staff.
- 6.2. Questions relating to copyright issues should be referred to the Copyright Officer.
- 6.3. The College recognizes that the Fair Dealing exception under the current Copyright Act allows individuals and institutions to justify reasonable copying of copyrighted materials for the purposes of research, private study, education, parody, satire, criticism, review or new reporting.
- 6.4. The Use of the Copyright Materials Policy applies to all uses of all publication media – print, digital, graphical, Internet, audio, and video.
- 6.5. Procedures/Rules:
 - 6.5.1. Individual Responsibilities
 - 6.5.1.1. It is the responsibility of individuals using copyrighted materials to ensure that said use is compliant with Canadian law, the Use of the Copyright Materials Policy, and the Copyright Practices Guide for GPRC Instructors and Staff.
 - 6.5.2. Nature of Use of Copyrighted Materials
 - 6.5.2.1. Where no express permission or license to use copyrighted materials is in force, members of the college community shall ensure that their use of those materials conforms to the purposes and boundaries defined in the copyright Practices Guide for GPRC Instructors and Staff.
 - 6.5.2.2. Questions relating to use of copyrighted materials which exceeds the boundaries defined in the Copyright Practices Guide for GPRC Instructors and Staff are to be referred to the Copyright Officer.
 - 6.5.3. Duplicating
 - 6.5.3.1. Duplicating Services will copy material containing copyrighted materials only after the staff member requesting such copying has provided assurance, in writing, that he/she is aware of and in compliance with the Use of Copyright Materials Policy.
 - 6.5.3.2. Members of the College community shall not use any College owned or leased equipment to make copies in violation of Canadian copyright law.
 - 6.5.3.3. The library may copy audio and video-based copyrighted materials already in the GPRC collection if the original copies are in obsolete formats or are at risk of damage, provided that the original copy is not in circulation at the same time as the resulting duplicate copy.
 - 6.5.4. Internet Sites
 - 6.5.4.1. Publication access to College-owned Internet servers and College-rented space on outside servers will be provided only to those who give assurance, in writing, that they are aware of and in compliance with the Use of Copyright Materials Policy.
 - 6.5.4.2. A Copyright Notice specifying conditions for the use of College materials and contact information will be placed on the College Website and will be widely accessible from other points on the site.
 - 6.5.5. Education and Information
 - 6.5.5.1. The Copyright Officer will actively seek opportunities to provide information to members of the College community regarding their rights and responsibilities relating to copyright issues.
 - 6.5.5.2. Contact information for those responsible for administering this policy and advising on its implementation will be made easily accessible to the College community.
 - 6.5.5.3. This policy, a Copyright Practices Guide for GPRC Instructors and Staff and any appropriate additional copyright information will be placed on the College Website.
 - 6.5.5.4. Instructors and other College staff engaged in instructional activities will, where appropriate to do so, inform students how to access copyrighted materials.

USE OF COPYRIGHT MATERIALS POLICY

6.5.6. Penalties

- 6.5.6.1. The College is obliged by law to exercise due diligence in ensuring that staff and students of the institution adhere to copyright laws and agreements.
- 6.5.6.2. Any member of the College community who violates this policy may be subject to loss of access to the facilities of production – photocopiers, printers, audio and video recording devices, scanners, Internet servers, etc..
- 6.5.6.3. Should the College become aware that its copyright is being violated it will so inform the violators and will evaluate the need for further action.
