

DEPARTMENT OF ACADEMIC UPGRADING

COURSE OUTLINE – WINTER 2024

EN0110 (A3)- English Grade 10 Equivalent – 5 (7.5-0-0) HS 112.5 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

OFFICE HOURS:

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

In this course, students work to improve their reading comprehension by studying various genres including short stories, drama, poetry, and nonfiction. There will be opportunities for both oral and written expression (paragraphs and essays) with a focus on mastery of punctuation, grammar and sentence construction.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE:

- Complete 1 of the following:
 - EN0090 - Basic English III (5)
 - Equivalent English placement test score

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

- Notebook
- Duotang
- Binder with loose leaf.
- John Wyndham's novel The Chrysalids
William Shakespeare's play Romeo and Juliet

DELIVERY MODE(S):

- On-campus (face-to-face) – This type of course will be delivered on campus in a specific location which will be indicated on the student timetable. Students are expected to fully attend in person.

- Students will be using My-Class, an NWP learning management system, to access course materials and to view their progress. Students will work through a series of readings, exercises, and computer-assisted learning with help as required from the instructor. Oral reading is required and writing skills are a priority.
- Please note that EN0080, EN0090, and EN0110 share this course block. While at times, students in all three courses will share in learning activities, more often students will be working according to their assigned course and grade level.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- The study of English Language Arts empowers students to understand and appreciate literature as well as the world around them. It enables students to understand and appreciate language and to use it confidently for a variety of purposes. The following learning outcomes are interrelated and interdependent:
 - Explore thoughts, ideas, feelings, and experiences.
 - Understand literature and other texts in oral, print, visual and multimedia forms, and respond personally, critically, and creatively.
 - Collect and manage ideas and information.
 - Create oral, print, visual and multimedia texts, and enrich the clarity and artistry of communication.
 - Respect, support and collaborate with others in learning
 - Read and respond to a variety of writing including current events, fiction, and poetry.
 - Understand that writing has many purposes that are applicable to life in and out of school.

Please see Alberta Education's English Language Arts Grades 10-12 Program of Study, particularly the 10-1 general and specific outcomes, for further information regarding this course's objectives and learning outcomes.

COURSE SCHEDULE/TENTATIVE TIMELINE:

- First day of class is January 8th, 2024.
- Last day of class is April 15th, 2024.
- No classes will be held on February 19th (family day); February 20th-23rd, 2024 (Winter Break); and March 29th, 2024 (Good Friday). The EN0130 Final Exam will be set by Student Hub later this semester and during exam week (April 17th-24th, 2024).
- Students will consult My-Class for monthly and weekly calendars; this will ensure that students keep up with course readings and assignment deadlines throughout the semester.
 - Throughout the semester, on Mondays, I introduce Sentence of the Week, Article of the Week, and any other weekly readings or assignments that will be covered in the upcoming week. On Fridays, students will submit their Article of the Week, Sentence of the Week Quiz, and other assignments if applicable.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Refer to the NWP's Policy on Student Rights and Responsibilities
- The Academic Upgrading Department is an adult education environment. Students are expected to show respect for each other as well as faculty and staff. Students are expected to participate fully in achieving their educational goals.
- Good attendance is a requirement of this course and of academic success generally. Students who miss more than 10 days of class may be disbarred from writing the final exam.
- Good attendance means more than simply being present physically during class time. It means coming to class prepared, having read the assigned material(s) for the day, and showing respect to all the other members of the class by being attentive. Disruptive activities – for instance, habitually arriving late or leaving early– will not be tolerated and may result in your removal from class.

- Unless there is a significant emergency or reason, students should avoid making travel plans that conflict with the class schedule during the semester.
- Students are required to check the My-Class site for this course regularly. Students should check it before each class to stay informed concerning course updates, readings, and announcements. It is the responsibility of the student, not the instructor, to print off readings and assignments from My-Class as necessary.
- Students are required to keep their cell phones on silent or on vibrate during class time. Ideally, cell phones should be used only as a learning resource- any phone calls, texts or other distracting behavior will not be tolerated unless urgent. Personal or campus computers and cell phones should be used for course-related work; therefore, please refrain from social media and gaming websites or apps during class time. Failure to comply with these rules may result in your removal from class.
- Students are expected to limit the consumption of food during class-time, especially when class is held in the computer lab.
- Students should respect and adhere to assessment deadlines and in-class assessment dates (tests). Students should use the monthly and weekly calendars on My-Class to ensure they are staying on top of their coursework.
- Late assignments will be penalized 1% per day. Last-minute requests for extensions will not be granted unless medical/or other professional documentation can be provided. Please note that I will not accept any late assignments after I have handed back marked assignments to the class (Turnaround time for marked assignments is usually about one week- two weeks).
- All formal assignments are to be submitted via My-Class or as hard copies.
- If an emergency prevents attendance on a test day, students must contact me before the end of the test (as soon as possible) via email and may be asked to provide documentation to justify their absence.
- Please communicate with me in class or via email for booking office appointments and other communication or requests. Outside of class time, email is the fastest and most efficient way to get a hold of me.

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

Academic Misconduct will not be tolerated. For a more precise definition of academic misconduct and its consequences, refer to the Student Rights and Responsibilities policy available at <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/index.html>.

Note: all Academic and Administrative policies are available on the same page.
